

"THE GOD WHO HAS REVEALED HIMSELF"

Psalm 19

Main Idea: When we see how God has revealed His holiness through nature and His Word, we respond with seeing our need for His cleansing and His power to live guiltlessly before Him.

Introduction:

A poem of King David

"David's two only volumes" (Spurgeon)

Volume 1: Nature

What does this book reveal about God?

Two responses:

Volume 2: God's Law

What does this book reveal about God?

Two responses:

David's and Our Response

The need for Volume 3

Family Life Groups

“The God Who Has Revealed Himself”

Main Idea: When we see how God has revealed His holiness through nature and His Word, we respond with seeing our need for His cleansing and His power to live guiltlessly before Him.

1. How can you interest your kids and/or grandkids to take an active interest in exploring natural creation? How can you help them to look beyond natural creation to the Creator and worship Him alone?

2. What is the purpose of God’s commands? Do you find joy in God’s commands? In what way?

3. What are some practical ways to live before God in such a way that you continually lay your life open for His examination?

4. How can you help your kids and/or grandkids to look beyond God's commands to His holy person, and through the work of Christ, worship Him alone?

Questions? Feel free to contact Pastor Dan Tuggy at dan@ebcsalem.com.

